

Why the Conversation about Abortion Needs to Continue

Introduction

Sadly, one in three women in the United States will have an abortion in her lifetime. That means approximately one million women will terminate a pregnancy each year. Despite this high number, abortion remains a highly controversial topic.

Many people feel passionate about both sides of the issue, and it can be difficult to have a frank conversation about it. But we must try. Because the truth is, abortion is not going away. And as long as it exists, we must discuss it openly and honestly.
